

H. Melike Kübler (born Çömlek, in 1986, Mersin Turkey) has a bachelor degree in Political Science from Hacettepe University. She worked a year in Cologne for an European association after graduation. She continued career in finance as well as contributing with her art critics in various printed and non printed publications, working parttime in Istanbul Contemporary in Turkey. She was as one of the coordinators at Spaces of Culture project in Goethe-Institut Istanbul in 2018 where she managed programing performance, exhibitions, and publications before moving to Germany.

Statement: "In today's digitalised world art and freedom of expression are permanently threatened by institutionalized populism."